

Luis Vazquez III is a 2x graduate of Kean University. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Mathematics, as well as a Master's degree in Counseling Education. Vazquez has been teaching high school mathematics for 16 years in the state of New Jersey. Throughout his teaching career he's been very involved with student engagement, including hosting pep rallies that have gone viral, as well as leading overnight teen male empowerment events.

Vazquez also serves as a volunteer for Family Support Organization (FSO), a male mentoring program located in Plainfield NJ. He is also one of the founders of a nonprofit organization called N.O.W., which stands for No Opportunity Wasted, to help mentor and assist young adults from high school through college and beyond. With his passion and dedication for serving the youth, Vazquez also serves on the board of DreamHouse Make A Difference Foundation.

Vazquez is also a dedicated husband and father of 4, which are titles he is most proud of.
